

Robbery occurs every 60 seconds while Violent Crimes occur every 35 seconds. Envision Security Partners is committed to ensuring you have the knowledge, training, and power to be able to combat these alarming statistics.

are you ready?

Envision Security Partners employs only professional, certified law enforcement and military personnel to provide the highest level of professionalism and protection to its customers.

- Envision Security Partners' experienced and trained officers provide a protection that cannot be provided by civilian-based security officers.
- Envision Security Partners' officers undergo an extensive background investigation, medical and physical exam, mental evaluation, criminal history and financial history check.
- Envision Security Partners' officers are a law enforcement officers, certified with extensive training that provides knowledge and expertise to deal with any emergencies and crisis situations.
- Envision Security Partners ensures the most professional and experienced personnel to our clients-reducing liability and enhancing protection.
- Envision Security Partners' officers have the ability to respond with the highest level of professionalism and hold the power to arrest, access emergency response personnel and on-duty law enforcement personnel, if needed.

Envision Security Partners' Guards are highly trained and certified officers with the power to arrest and access emergency response personnel.

At Envision Security Partners, we are continually helping Banking/Finance, Retail and Convenient Store professionals protect and empower people to the safest power!

Visit our Website at EnvisionSP.com to request a SafestPower Proposal or for additional information